WORLD'S FAIR

SUNDAY EXCURSIONS

JUNE 16 and JULY 28

BALTIMORE & OHIO

Of never-ending interest is the magnificent panorama of New York's Hudson River skyline and busy harbor.

MORE FUN New Exhibits

NEVER before has there been a World's Fair just like New York's great spectacle now blazing in grandeur on Flushing Meadows. The public demanded that it be repeated in 1940, so here it is bigger, better, grander, gayer than in 1939.

Exhibits of the great nations of the world.
Biggest, gayest Amusement Park in the World.

Thousands of benches, convenient rest rooms, spacious picnic grounds. More than eighty eating places; restaurants, cafeterias, lunch counters, soda fountains—moderate prices—breakfast as low as 25 cents; lunch, 45 cents; dinner, 65 cents. New 5 and 10-cent restaurant.

Thrill to the merriest, maddest, mightiest entertainment in the world on all sides of you—1500 free exhibits, breath-taking air shows, free dancing, rollicking parades, colorful folk dances, concerts, movies—never a dull moment.

ADMISSION TO THE FAIR, 50 CENTS

Children, three to thirteen, 25 cents

Souvenir Admission Tickets may be purchased from representatives on train.

Convenient Transit Service to World's Fair—
B. & O. excursion passengers arriving at New York (Liberty Street Ferry Terminal), who wish to go direct to the New York World's Fair may conveniently do so by taking transit line service at transit stations, located within a short distance of the ferry terminal; namely, at Cortlandt and Church Streets; at Cortlandt and Greenwich Streets; or at Broadway and Fulton Street. Frequent, fast service—5-cent transit fare.

SIGHTSEEING ROUTE TO NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR FOR B. & O. EXCURSIONISTS

You will be thrilled by the trip across the Hudson River from Jersey City to Liberty Street (approximately 10 minutes)—seeing the famed New York Billion Dollar Skyline, the busy harbor, Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island and Battery Park.
