WHETHER you're a New Yorker or a visitor to New York, no other form of transportation provides such convenient, swift, direct service to the World's Fair as Long Island Rail Road! It's just a ten minute express ride from Pennsylvania Station, in the heart of New York City, to the magnificent new World's Fair Station, in the heart of the Fair Grounds! No need to purchase tickets in advance! Just board the train—fares are collected by turnstile as you enter or leave the Fair Grounds. No timetable needed, either—service is shuttle-frequent. And as for convenience—there's nothing to match it at either end!

At Pennsylvania Station, for instance, you've platform-to-platform passage between Pennsylvania Railroad trains from all points and World's Fair trains. And Pennsylvania Station is express stop on the city's subway lines . . . hub of bus lines . . . and within easy distance of leading hotels and important theatre, shopping, shipping and business districts. At World's Fair Station you're within stone's throw of the sky-piercing trylon and gigantic perisphere. No long walk when you leave the train—you're in the center of activities.

Just as "by train" offers safe, swift, comfortable and economical service from all sections of the country to New York, it also offers unparalleled service from New York to the World's Fair!
