

Double Dividends ON YOUR '40 VACATION

ALWAYS WANTED TO SEE NEW YORK? Must see the World's Fair? This year do both and make your vacation budget pay double dividends.

New York in the spring is a gay place, and summer and autumn speed the pace. The curtain is up on Broadway and the show goes on—the greatest actors in the world on its stages. Museums hold priceless art treasures . . . the secrets of the stars are dramatically revealed in the Planetarium . . . the promise of new and amazing discoveries is found in the towering shafts of Radio City. . . . "Play ball" with the city's three major league baseball teams—the Giants, the Dodgers, the World Champion Yankees. See the champion leather pushers in Madison Square Garden. Visit the Empire State, tallest building in the world. Bask at some of the world's finest beaches.

FUN . . . FUN and more Fun

ON TO THE FUTURE via the entertaining exhibits of American industry . . . glimpse the onward rush of science . . . the miracles of tomorrow.

Thrill to the merriest, maddest, mightiest entertainment in the world on all sides of you. Fifteen hundred free exhibits . . . breath-taking air shows . . . rollicking parades . . . concerts . . . movies . . . never a dull moment. It's fun . . . fun . . . and more fun . . . and it's FREE.

Travel AMERICA!

THEIR RICH histories lend romance to the story of the States . . . a story excitingly told at the Fair. One by one, in glorious procession, the scenic beauties and historic landmarks of the American nation march before the eyes of the visitor. In the Court of States you get a United States panorama . . . a knowledge of the industry and culture of every section of the country. The President urges you to "travel America" this year. Travel America . . . TO the Fair . . . and AT the Fair!

Round the World IN A DAY

TIME WAS when 80 days for circling the globe was a fantastically short time born in the imaginative mind of Jules Verne. Then Howard Hughes girdled the world in four days. And now, in the exotic foreign section of the World's Fair, you can sample the charm and culture, view the life and customs of foreign lands within 24 hours. From the palm-fringed shores of the tropics . . . to the fjords of the north . . . from the boulevards of Paris . . . to the tinkling temple bells of the far-off Orient . . . from the Antilles to the Antipodes, the Fair spans the earth.

This summer you can go "abroad at home"—safely, comfortably—along peaceways that emphasize brotherhood, not bombs.

Travel in Comfort TO AND FROM THE FAIR

VIEW THE LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD'S SCENIC ROUTE BETWEEN BUFFALO and NEW YORK—Through the "Switzerland of America"

YOUR WORLD'S FAIR VACATION really begins when you board a Lehigh Valley train. Comfortable, modern equipment, a route which includes the scenic portions of three States, and reasonably-priced dining car service, contribute to the enjoyment of your trip to "The World of Tomorrow."

LEHIGH VALLEY TRAINS USE PENNSYLVANIA STATION, IN THE HEART OF NEW YORK CITY

The Long Island Railroad operates frequent service between Pennsylvania Station and the World's Fair Grounds—10 minutes; 10 cents!

Passenger Agent Service

Incoming trains are met at Pennsylvania Station, New York, by Lehigh Valley passenger agents, who will be glad to assist patrons in any way possible. A request for this service in advance, to any Lehigh Valley representative, will insure passenger's being met at New York.

THE ROUTE OF THE BLACK DIAMOND

De luxe coaches, dining cars and observation parlor-lounge cars

Leaving Buffalo, The Black Diamond is soon speeding through the rich agricultural section of Upper New York State and then enters the Finger Lakes Region. After paralleling the shore of Lake Cayuga, we stop at Ithaca, home of Cornell University. The college buildings, "far above Cayuga waters," can be seen from the train window. Another hour brings us to Sayre, Pennsylvania, where locomotive and car shops of the Lehigh Valley Railroad are located. From this point, we follow the broad Susquehanna River, with its rugged landscapes, for a hundred miles, through country rich in history and Indian legend.

Wilkes-Barre, the next stop, is in the heart of the anthracite coal region of Pennsylvania. Coal breakers and massive piles of slate indicate the wealth of "black diamonds" underground.

Leaving Wilkes-Barre, we ascend the Wilkes-Barre Mountain, and from the summit view the towns and cities of the Wyoming and Nescopeck Valleys as on an aerial map. After descending the other side of the mountain, we arrive at Mauch Chunk, "The Switzerland of America." From here the route is along the Lehigh River. Three important cities of the Lehigh Valley are reached in swift succession—Allentown, world-famous for its silk mills and cement industry; Bethlehem, home of the gigantic Bethlehem Steel Mills, which we pass for several miles; and Easton, another important industrial city, and home of Lafayette College. The last portion of the eastward trip on The Black Diamond is through the interesting New Jersey farming country.

Enjoy a Stopover at NIAGARA FALLS

New York World's Fair visitors from the West should not miss the opportunity to visit NIAGARA FALLS either on the going or returning trip. This famous all-year resort is located on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, and through coach and Pullman service is operated between Niagara Falls and New York City.

There are so many interesting sights to see at Niagara that several days would not be too many to spend here. Niagara Falls literature will be sent on request.

New York City—World's Fair All-Expense Tours

These tours cover every necessary expense (except meals) from the time of arrival at New York City until departure, for periods of from two to seven days, including transfer from railroad station to hotel, hotel accommodation, sightseeing tour of the city and a visit to the Fair. A wide choice of hotels is available to suit your own travel budget. These all-expense tours in New York City are on sale at Lehigh Valley Railroad ticket offices.

American Jubilee

AMERICA STRIDES the stage in this romantic, song-spun review fusing musical comedy, circus, opera and pageant. The great names of the entertainment world are here—Arthur Schwartz, Oscar Hammerstein, II, Leon Leonidoff of Radio City Music Hall, and Albert Johnson. They've blended their talents in a star-spangled spectacle rivalling anything the theatre has seen in scope and splendor.

The four outstanding episodes in the rise of a mighty nation parade before your eyes. The inauguration of George Washington . . . the feverish story of discovery of gold in California . . . a tumultuous welcome to Jenny Lind . . . "Swords and Roses," ending as President Lincoln enters Ford's theatre . . . then the Gay Nineties cavalcade, thundering to a climax with Teddy Roosevelt.

Three hundred performers and forty trained horses take part in this great spectacle . . . and you can see it at the Forty Fair for forty cents.

THE MAGIC FOUNTAINS

COMBINING WATER, fire and sound in a starlit symphony, this inspiring show is given nightly at the Lagoon of Nations . . . FREE!

Never before have engineering skill and great art joined to create such a miracle of light and color. Poets, in their most fantastic flights of fancy, have rarely envisioned a wildness and beauty to match it.

Pillars of water rise high in the air . . . flames dart from hidden sources . . . fireworks burst high above in resplendent glory . . . Music, perfectly synchronized with these myriad effects, rounds out one of the most glorious ensembles ever conceived.

And coolness goes with the wind as 25 fountains, alive with beauty, spread refreshing breezes over the Fair . . . day and night . . . all summer.

NEW Aquacade

NEW IN EVERY WAY. New stars . . . new songs . . . new costumes . . . new water formations . . . new fountain display . . . all join to present a brand new show topping the famous '39 spectacle applauded by 5,000,000 people.

See the midways of the four biggest Fairs in American history ablaze with electric lights. Thrill to the Phosphorescent Fantasy as graceful girls glide over the water of changing colors.

Billy Rose, master showman, has outdone himself.

The incomparable Eleanor Holm is back to lead the greatest array of swimming stars ever assembled in one show. Costumes and scenery were designed by the noted Raoul Pene Dubois and the entire production is again staged by John Murray Anderson.

PLENTY OF ROOMS
at low prices

NEW YORK CITY can accommodate daily approximately 600,000 visitors. Hotels can care for about 80,000 between $1.50 and $3.00 per day and about 170,000 more between $3.00 and $5.00 per day. In addition there are registered and inspected private homes and rooming houses which will accommodate about 200,000 at $1.00 and $1.50 per day per person.

Information regarding rooms in hotels may be obtained through the Hotel Association of New York City, Inc., 221 West 57th Street—Circle 7-0800, or see your local travel agent. Rooms in hotels and private homes may also be obtained through the Mayor's Official World's Fair Rooming Bureau, Chanin Building, 42nd Street and Lexington Avenue—Murray Hill 3-1150. Write, telephone or telegraph to either of the above bureaus for information on rates and location.

The latch-string is out for you all summer—Come when you like—Stay where you like—As long as you like—At rates that are right.

EAT WITHIN YOUR BUDGET

Here you can eat to your heart's content and keep your pocketbook contented too. The Fair's new 5 and 10 cent restaurant strikes the 1940 keynote of good food at low prices.

Just plank your 5 and 10 cent pieces on the counter and watch the fine food appear. Thick sandwiches for thin dimes . . . tempting desserts and other delicious dishes at sweet and low rates . . . no item on the menu more than 10 cents . . . many only a nickel.

PAMPER YOUR APPETITE and coddle your purse! Choose from over 80 eating places on the grounds for good food at low prices. Restaurants, snack bars, soda fountains, cafeterias and lunch counters dot the avenues and are located in many exhibit buildings. Hot dogs and hamburgers are a dime. Coffee is 5 and 10 cents and Coca-

Cola and other bottled beverages a nickel. Milk is 5 and 10 cents a bottle. In the city and at the Fair, you can have a breakfast for 25 cents, a lunch for 45 cents, a dinner for 65 cents.

If you have a yen for foreign foods, you can eat in any language . . . canard natais l'orange from France . . . arroz con pollo from Cuba . . . reindeer steak from Finland. . . Prices in the Foreign Pavilions are higher, but the chefs are internationally famous, and the cuisine and service de luxe.

Or pack a lunch, relax beneath a striped umbrella on one of the Fair's free rest grounds, and picnic in comfort.

NEW ORLEANS

THE MARDI GRAS spirit reigns in this New Amusement Area show. Enjoy the famous New Orleans French Quarter . . . visit a night-club featuring Southern "blues" . . . get that carnival thrill in a unique entertainment centre.

CAMPUS

THE "RAH-RAH-RAH" SPIRIT of Old Siwash and Boka-Boka rules over the Dancing Campus, one of the new and colorful amusement features. Riot with the jitterbugs in an atmosphere of collegiate high-jinks. See Flirtation Walk, Dance Prom, college shops and restaurants, football, and a gay musical review of campus life.
